Disarming Dialogues: SPEAK

Stories of Professionalism and Ethics as an Approach to Knowing

In our continuing quest to advance humanity in medicine, the Bucksbaum Institute for Clinical Excellence, University of Chicago and the Medical Humanities Group of University College of Medical Sciences, University of Delhi, in collaboration with Delhi Medical Council, proudly present the third phase of the highly successful Disarming Dialogues program inaugurated in 2016.

Through Disarming Dialogues: SPEAK (Stories of Professionalism and Ethics as an Approach to Knowing), participants will interact with experts in the fields of story-telling, poetry, ethics and writing, and will be able to:

• Discuss how stories influence reflection and learning;
• Identify real-life stories that highlight issues of ethics and professionalism; and
• Describe how to use stories in health professions education and mentoring.

DATE: 4 October 2018

LOCATION: The University of Chicago Center in Delhi

This event is by invitation only.
"The coming together of two laudable movements—death with dignity and cost containment—concerns me. Patients have a right to die. But do they have a duty to die?"

—Mark Siegler, MD, Executive Director, Bucksbaum Institute for Clinical Excellence

In our continuing quest to advance ethics and humanity in medicine, the Bucksbaum Institute for Clinical Excellence, University of Chicago and the Medical Humanities Group of University College of Medical Sciences, University of Delhi, and Delhi Medical Council proudly present the third phase of the highly successful Disarming Dialogues program inaugurated in 2016.

Through Disarming Dialogues: TEACH (Teaching Ethics and Advocating for Change in Healthcare), participants from ethics committees and others with a special interest in ethics from various medical institutions in Delhi will interact with experts and will be able to:

• Defend the need to formally include discussion on ethical issues in the medical curriculum;
• Identify the gains and challenges in the recent Supreme Court decision on euthanasia and advanced medical directives; and
• Discuss the ethical dimensions of the euthanasia debate.

DATE: 5 October 2018
LOCATION: The University of Chicago Center in Delhi

This event is by invitation only.